

HUGHES IN N. Y. ALL SMILES— EXPLAINS THE THRILLS

New York, July 12. — Chas. E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president, arrived here in triumph this morning. He refused to say whether or not he intended to see Roosevelt on his present trip.

Hughes was in good humor and seemed overjoyed at his return to active politics.

"My plans for the immediate future are rather uncertain. Perhaps I shall stay here in New York for a few days. You know I live in New York," said Hughes.

"Then your sudden trip over night from Washington was something like coming home?"

"Yes, it was coming back home," he replied. "It seems natural to be here and to see so many of my friends."

"Can you tell us what the thrills are like when a man is drafted by a great party as its candidate for the biggest job on earth," he was asked.

"I can only say that there are certain circumstances under which a matter of duty is extremely clear and leaves no grounds for hesitancy," replied Hughes. "There is no question in this situation as to what I should do and in my announcement to the country I endeavored to make my attitude clear."

Half a dozen camera men asked Hughes to pose at the Astor hotel today and he readily agreed. They took about a dozen snaps each.

Henry W. Taft, brother of the former president, was one of the early callers at the Hughes suite today.

Hughes said he did not know if Frank Hitchcock would be the new head of the national committee.

MUNSEY NEWSPAPERS COME OUT FOR HUGHES

New York, June 12. — Frank A. Munsey, who with Geo. W. Perkins has been among the strongest Roosevelt supporters, today called upon Charles E. Hughes at the Hotel

Astor. The New York Press, owned by Munsey, today declared for Hughes and said:

"When Roosevelt sent his message to the Progressive convention he ended definitely his and its opposition to the election of Hughes."

ROOSEVELT RADICALS WILL STORM OYSTER BAY TO GET T. R. TO RUN

New York, June 12.—Still full of fight, the Roosevelt radicals of the Progressive party will storm Oyster Bay today in an effort to convince the colonel that he should accept the Progressive nomination for president.

Delegates, returned from Chicago, today said that it was still the consensus of opinion of Progressives that T. R. should accept the nomination of the party he fathered and that the party positively would not endorse Hughes.

The issue in this campaign will be flatly Berlin against Washington, with Hughes, the former protagonist, against Wilson, said Solomon Sufrin, a member of the New York Progressive executive committee.

Progressives leaders declare that the party will not go out of existence should Roosevelt fail to assume the leadership, but it "may even vote for the Democratic candidate."

AUSTRIAN ARMIES ROUTED BY RUSSIANS NEAR CZERNOWITZ
